4. Scope

In Scope

- User login and authentication
- Role based access for different types of staff
- Bed and room availability
- Medical resource and equipment tracking
- Assignment of beds, rooms, or resources to patients or operational needs
- Resource status updates such as Available, Occupied, Reserved, Cleaning, Maintenance, or Unavailable.
- Dashboard showing current resource utilization and availability.
- Searching, sorting, and filtering resources.
- Basic patient identification associated with resource assignments.
- Resource assignment and status history.
- Administrative functionality for adding, modifying, and removing resources.
- Database storage for users, resources, assignments, and related system information.
- Basic reporting or summary statistics regarding resource utilization.

Out of Scope

- Full EHR or EMR system implementation
- Medical diagnosis or treatment recommendations
- Medication management or prescription processing
- Medical billing or insurance claim processing
- Direct integration with insurance providers
- Integration with existing HER or EMR
- Large scale hospital or multi-hospital network management
- Advanced AI functionality